

AGN. NO. _____

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR MICHAEL D. ANTONOVICH

September 27, 2005

REWARD FOR BURGLARY

The satellite office of the Sheriff's Commercial Crimes Bureau was burglarized sometime after late Saturday afternoon on September 24 and early morning of Monday, September 26. The perpetrator(s) forced entry into the clearly marked Sheriff's facility in West Covina and stole two video camera systems.

The West Covina Police Department is seeking witnesses with information to assist in the arrest of the responsible person(s).

I, THEREFORE, MOVE THAT the Board of Supervisors offer a reward for $10,000 in return for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the burglary of the Sheriff's Commercial Crimes Bureau's satellite office in West Covina sometime after late Saturday afternoon on September 24 and early morning of Monday, September 26.
